6 Non-violation of Human Rights

The Board of Directors respects human rights. In this regard, the following policies and guidelines have been prescribed.

1. There shall be no activities or support of activities which violate human rights.
2. Employees are provided with knowledge and understanding of human rights which are applied to work operations.
3. There are no limitations to independence or differences in ideology, gender, race, religion, politics or other matters. The expression of opinions which could cause conflicts or divisions should be avoided.
4. Channels shall be provided for employees or persons who believe that their personal rights have been violated or that they have been treated unfairly to file a complaint with the Company. Such complaints shall be given attention and processed fairly.
