

Corporate Governance principles are divided into 5 chapters, as follows:

1. Rights of Shareholders

1.1 The Board of Directors appreciates and respects the ownership rights of shareholders. No actions are taken to violate or infringe the rights of shareholders. The interests of shareholders are fairly safeguarded and the exercise of rights by all shareholder groups are supported and promoted, whether domestic or foreign, major shareholders, minority shareholders or institutional shareholders, incorporating both the fundamental rights of shareholders, access rights to information in a sufficient and timely manner, and the right to attend shareholders' meetings to determine directions for operations and decisions on matters having a significant impact on the Company.

1.2 The Board of Directors provides opportunities for shareholders to propose items to be included in the meeting agenda and submit questions prior to the shareholders' meeting day. Rules for the proposal of agenda item and advance submission of questions have been published in the Company website.

1.3 The Board of Directors ensures that information pertaining to the day, time, venue and agenda of the meeting are provided together with explanations and reasons supporting each agenda in the notice of the general meeting of shareholders. The shareholders' meeting venue shall be conveniently accessible.

1.4 The Board of Directors has granted shareholders with the authority to approve the remunerations of Company Directors on a yearly basis as well as to determine the rules for paying remuneration to each Company Committee.

1.5 The Board of Directors promotes the use of technology in shareholders' meetings in order to promote accuracy and speed. Votes are taken for each item on the agenda. Shareholders are given the right to elect Company Directors individually and ballot papers are used and independent overseers of the vote count are engaged.

1.6 The Board of Directors publishes shareholders' meeting resolutions along with the voting results for each agenda on the Company website on the day following the meeting.

1.7 The Board of Directors prepares minutes of the shareholders' meeting. The minutes provide an explanation of voting procedures, list of Company Directors, members of Company Committees, and Executive Officers present and absent from the meeting, the voting results in each agenda together with questions and answers. Items which have not been specified in the meeting notice are not added to the agenda. The minutes are published on the Company website.

2. Equitable Treatment of Shareholders

2.1 The Board of Directors treats all shareholders fairly and equitably. Shares of the same class carry equal voting rights, i.e. one vote per share.

2.2 The Board of Directors encourages shareholders who are unable to attend a meeting in person to grant proxies to attend the meeting and vote on their behalves. The proxy form used allows shareholders to determine voting directions and at least 1 independent director will be provided as an alternative for the grant of shareholder's proxy.
