2 Conflict of Interest

The Board of Directors has a policy for dealing with conflict of interest. The following guidelines have been prescribed.

1. The administration of conflict of interest or connected transactions is undertaken prudently, fairly and rationally. There is a transparent system for approving transactions which primarily takes into account the Company's interests. Interested Company Directors do not have the right to vote and must make a full disclosure in accordance with the rules of the Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Stock Exchange of Thailand.
2. The Company's interests shall be upheld subject to legality. No action shall be taken that would be a conflict with the Company's interests, and no benefits or privileges will be given to any person.
3. Company Directors and Executives must disclose personal interests and the interests of related persons in accordance with the prescribed rules.
4. Company Directors, Executives and employees who acquire inside information are prohibited from trading in Company shares in the 1-month period prior to public disclosure of financial statements.
5. Company Directors, Executives as well as their spouses and children who have not yet attained legal age shall have the duty to report Company securities holdings and changes in such holdings to the Board of Directors in the subsequent Board Meeting.
6. Company information or secrecy acquired or acknowledged shall not be disclosed or transmitted to third parties or unrelated persons.
7. Disclosure shall be made by authorized Company employees. Classes of secrecy may be prescribed in accordance with the significance of the information. Disclosure shall be made within the assigned scope of duties and responsibilities.
