Article 14 The Company may not own its own shares or take them in pledge except in the following cases:

- (1) The Company may purchase back the shares of its shareholders who disagree with the resolution of the shareholder meeting amending the Company's Articles of Association regarding the right to vote and to obtain dividends which such shareholders deem that they have been unfairly treated.
- (2) The Company may purchase back its shares for the purpose of financial management when the Company has a surplus of accumulated profit and liquidity and such purchase does not cause financial problems to the company.

The shares held by the Company shall not be counted as a quorum for the purpose of shareholder meeting and shall not constitute the right to vote and to obtain dividends.

In purchasing back the shares, the meeting must approve the purchase except in case the company purchases back the shares not exceeding 10% of paid up capital of which should be in accordance with board of Directors' authority.

In purchasing back the shares, selling and curtailing such shares, the Company is required to do so in accordance with the law.

Article 15 The shares of the Company shall be transferred without restrictions except in any of the following events:-

1. Such share transfer shall deprive the Company of the rights or benefits to which the Company is entitled under the laws or
2. Such share transfer shall cause at any time the holding of the shares by the non-Thai shareholders to exceed thirty (30) percent of the total number of shares sold. In this case, the Company shall be entitled to refuse the transfer of such shares.

Article 16 The transfer of shares shall be valid upon endorsement of the share certificates by naming the transferee and affixing the signatures of the transferor and transferee and delivering such share certificates to the transferee. The transfer of share shall be invoked against the Company only upon receipt by the Company of the application for registration of such transfer and shall be invoked against other persons only upon registration thereof by the Company. In this respect, if the Company regards such transfer of shares as legal, the Company shall register such transfer within fourteen (14) days as from the date of receipt of the application or if the Company regards such transfer as incorrect or invalid, the Company shall notify the application within seven (7) days. Upon registration of the Company shares in the Securities Exchange of Thailand, the transfer of shares shall be in accordance with the law on securities and exchange. In case where the transferee is a minor, there must also be a written consent of the legal representative or custodian of such minor.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF S & J INTERNATIONAL ENTERPRISES PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED

- Article 17 In case where the transferee wishes to have the new share certificates, the transferee shall submit to the Company a written application bearing the signature of the transferee and certified by at least one (1) witness and shall return the original share certificates or other evidence to the Company. When the Company regards such transfer as legally correct, the Company shall register such transfer within seven (7) days and shall issue new share certificates within one (1) month as from the date of receipt of such application.

Chapter 3 Board of Directors

- Article 18 The Company shall have a Board of Directors comprising not less than five (5) directors and not less than half of whom shall have residence in the Kingdom. The Board of Directors shall elect one director to be the Chairman of the Board. In case where the Board of Directors deems it appropriate, the Board of Directors may elect one or several directors to be the Vice-Chairman of the Board. The Vice-Chairman shall have the duties pursuant hereto with respect to affairs assigned by the Chairman. Two directors shall jointly affix their signatures together with the seal of the Company in order to be binding on the Company. The Board of Directors may designate the names of the directors who have the power to affix their signatures together with the seal of the Company to be binding on the Company.
- Article 19 The directors shall be natural persons and shall
1. be sui juris;
 2. not be bankrupt, incompetent or quasi-incompetent
 3. have never been imprisoned on the final judgement of a court for an offense related to property committed with dishonest intent;
 4. have never been dismissed or removed from government service or a government organization or government agency in punishment for dishonesty in performing their duties.
- Article 20 The directors shall be elected at the shareholder meeting in accordance with the following rules and procedures:
1. A shareholder shall have one vote for one share
 2. Each shareholder must exercise all of the votes he or she has under paragraph one to elect one or several persons to be a director or directors and must not allot his or her vote to any person in any number.

3. The persons having the highest number of votes to the lower number of votes in order shall be elected as the directors equal to the number of directors to be elected by the shareholder meeting in such election. In case where the number of votes for the candidates in descending order are equal which would otherwise cause the number of directors to be elected by the shareholder meeting to be exceeded in such election, the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

Article 21 At every annual general meeting, one-third (1/3) of the directors shall retire from office. If the number of directors cannot be divided into three (3) parts, the nearest to such one-third (1/3) of the directors shall retire from office.

The retirement of directors in the first and second years after registration of the Company shall be effected by drawing lots. In the subsequent years, the directors who has held office the longest shall retire.

A director who retires from office may be re-elected.

Article 22 Apart from vacation by rotation, a director shall vacate office upon

1. death
2. resignation
3. lack of qualifications or possession of characteristics prohibited by law or these Articles
4. removal by resolution of the shareholder meeting
5. removal by the court order

Article 23 Any director wishing to resign from office shall submit a resignation letter to the Company. The resignation shall take effect upon the date on which such resignation letter reaches the Company. The Director who resigns under paragraph one may also notify the Registrar under the law on the public limited companies of the resignation.

Article 24 In case of vacancy in the Board of Directors for reasons other than by rotation. The Board of Directors shall elect a person who has qualifications and does not possess the characteristics prohibited of the Board of Directors unless the remaining term of office of such a director is less than two (2) months. Such a substitute director shall remain in office only for the term left for the director whom he or she replaces. The resolution of the Board of Directors under paragraph one shall consist of the votes not less than three-fourth (3/4) of the remaining number of directors.

Article 25 The shareholder meeting may pass a resolution removing any director from office prior to retirement by the votes of not less than three-fourth (3/4) of the number of shareholders present at the meeting and entitled to vote and representing the total shares of not less than half of the number of shares held by the shareholders present at the meeting and entitled to vote.

Article 26 The vacancy in the Board of Directors does not prevent the existing directors to perform any act unless the number of directors is less than the quorum required under Article 28. In such event, the existing directors may perform any act only in matters relating to the summoning of a shareholder meeting to elect the directors to replace all vacancies.

Article 27 At a meeting of the Board of Directors, not less than one half (1/2) of the total number of directors must be present at the meeting in order to form a quorum. In case where the Chairman of the Board is not present at the meeting or cannot perform his or her duties, if there is a Vice-Chairman, such Vice-Chairman shall be the Chairman of the meeting. If there is no such Vice-Chairman or if there is but such Vice-Chairman cannot perform his or her duties, the directors present at the meeting shall select one of the directors to be the Chairman of the meeting.

The decisions at the meeting shall be made by a majority vote. One director is entitled to one vote, but a director who has interests in any matter shall not be entitled to vote on such matter. In the event of a tie vote, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

Article 28 In calling a meeting of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board or a person assigned by the Chairman of the Board shall send a meeting notice to the directors at least three (3) days before the meeting date, except in cases of urgent necessity to preserve the rights or benefits of the company whereby notice of the meeting appointment may be sent by electronic means or any other means and the meeting date set sooner than normally prescribed.

The venue to be used for the meeting under paragraph one shall be in the area where the company's head office is located or any other place in the Kingdom. In the case of a meeting via electronic media, the location of the Company's head office of the meeting.

Article 29 The Board of Directors shall have the powers and duties to operate the Company in accordance with the laws, objectives, articles of association and resolutions of the Shareowners' Meeting. The Board of Directors shall appoint executive directors to carry out any or many businesses under any condition or may assign a director or other persons to perform any act on behalf of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF S & J INTERNATIONAL ENTERPRISES PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED

One or more shareholders holding the aggregate number of shares of not less than ten (10) percent of the total number of shares sold may subscribe their names in a written request directing the Board of Directors to summon an extraordinary meeting at any time but the reasons for summoning such meeting must be clearly stated in such a request. In this event, the Board of Directors must summon a shareholder meeting within forty-five (45) days as from the date of receipt of the request from the shareholders.

In case the Board of Directors fails to arrange for the meeting within such period under paragraph four, the shareholders who have subscribed their names or other shareholders holding the required aggregate number of shares may themselves call the meeting within forty-five (45) days as from the date of expiration of the period under paragraph four.

In such case, the meeting is deemed to be shareholders' meeting called by the Board of Directors and the Company shall be responsible for necessary expenses as may be incurred in the course of convening such meeting and the Company shall reasonably provide facilitation. In the case where, at the meeting called by the shareholders under paragraph five, the number of the shareholders presented does not constitute quorum as specified in Article 36 and Article 37, the shareholders under paragraph five shall jointly compensate the Company for the expenses incurred in arrangements for holding that meeting.

Article 34 In calling a shareholders' meeting, the Board of Directors shall prepare a meeting invitation letter specifying the venue, date, time, agenda and matters to be presented to the meeting, together with reasonable details, clearly indicating that it is a matter to be presented for information, for approval or consideration, as the case may be, including the opinions of the Board on such matters and deliver it to shareholders and the Registrar not less than seven (7) days before the meeting date. The notice of the meeting must be advertised in newspapers or through electronic media in accordance with the criteria specified by the Registrar for three (3) consecutive days and not less than three (3) days before the meeting date.

The location of the meeting under paragraph one shall be in the area where the Company's head office is located or any other place in the Kingdom. In case of a meeting via electronic media, the location of the Company's head office shall be considered the location of the meeting.
