

Principle 6 The Board of Directors shall provide an adequate system of risk management and internal control.

Principle 6.1

The Board shall ensure that the Company has effective and appropriate risk management and internal control systems that comply with applicable laws and standards.

Guidelines

1. The Board shall educate its members about major risks to the business.
2. The Board shall task the Risk Management Committee with the following:
 - Establishing the Company's risk management policy and system;
 - Promoting risk management as an integral part of the Company's organizational culture;
 - Providing the appropriate level of risk management with a particular emphasis on early warning signs; and
 - Overseeing, monitoring, and evaluating risk management performance.
3. The Board shall establish Internal Audit as an internal department. Internal Audit shall report to the Audit Committee on the following matters:
 - The adequacy of the Company's internal control; and
 - Reviewing and devising internal control measures with a particular emphasis on any significant anomalies

Principle 6.2

The Board shall establish an Audit Committee, who shall perform its tasks effectively and independently.

Guidelines

1. The Board shall establish an Audit Committee that comprises at least three (3) directors, all of whom shall be independent directors with required qualifications pursuant to applicable legal requirements promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Stock Exchange of Thailand.
2. The Board shall provide a charter for the Audit Committee, in which the directors' term in office and scope of duties and responsibilities are clearly defined.

Principle 6.3

The Board shall establish a policy to manage and monitor conflicts of interest that might occur among the Company, directors, management, and shareholders. The policy shall include measures to prevent the inappropriate use of corporate assets, information, and opportunities, as well as inappropriate transactions by related parties.

Guidelines

1. The Board shall provide an information security system, which includes policies and procedures on the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of such information, as well as market-sensitive information. The Board shall oversee compliance by any directors, senior executive officers, employees, and outsiders with access to such information.

2. The Board shall manage and monitor any transaction with a potential conflict of interest, as well as provide guidelines and procedures to make certain that such a transaction will be made in conformity with the legally prescribed procedure and information disclosure requirements in the best interest of the Company and the majority of the shareholders. Any party with a vested interest in a particular transaction shall be excluded from the decision.

3. The Board shall require all directors to report their personal stake in a particular agenda item that will constitute a conflict of interest before the commencing the consideration of the item. Such a report shall be recorded in the minutes. The director(s) in question shall be excused from the meeting for the time being and shall cast no vote on that agenda item.

Principle 6.4

The Board shall adhere to anti-corruption laws and devise its own anti-corruption policy and procedures. The policy shall be made known to all within the Company and to outsiders as well.

Guidelines

1. The Board shall provide in writing an anti-corruption handbook and anti-corruption regulations. All directors, executive officers, and employees shall abide by the handbook and regulations. The Board shall also support activities that promote and instill an awareness of the relevant laws, rules, and regulations in the mind of all directors, executive officers, and employees.

2. The Board shall disclose to the public its anti-corruption policy and whistleblower channel on the Company's website and annual report.

Principle 6.5

The Board shall provide a mechanism for handling complaints and whistleblowing.

Guidelines

1. Instructions on how to handle complaint submissions shall be included in the Code of Conduct for Directors, Executive Officers, and Employees.

2. In the event that a submission entails matters of corruption, it shall be subject to the procedures in the Anti-Corruption Policy.
