

2. Conflict of Interest

To deal with conflicts of interest, the Board shall adopt the following guidelines:

1. Conflicts of interest or connected transactions shall be administered prudently, fairly, and rationally. There shall be a transparent system for approving transactions that takes into account the Company's best interests. Directors with a vested interest in a particular matter shall not have the right to vote on it and shall be required to make a full disclosure in accordance with the rules of the Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Stock Exchange of Thailand.

2. The Company's interests shall be upheld, subject to legality. No action that would constitute a conflict of interest with the Company shall be taken. In addition, no special benefits or privileges shall be given to any person.

3. Directors and executive officers shall be required to disclose their and related persons' interests in accordance with the prescribed rules.

4. Directors, executive officers, and employees with insider information shall be prohibited from trading Company's securities during the 1-month period prior to public disclosure of the Company's financial statements and 24 hours, after the Company's financial statements disclosure.

5. Directors, executive officers, as well as their spouses and underage children, shall have the duty to report their holding of the Company's securities and any changes to their holding to the Board of Directors in the subsequent board meeting.

6. Company information or secrets acquired or acknowledged shall not be disclosed or transmitted to third parties or unrelated persons.

7. Any information disclosure shall be made by authorized employees. Classes of confidentiality may be prescribed in accordance with the significance of the information. Disclosure shall be made within the assigned scope of duties and responsibilities.

8. Directors and senior executive officers shall be required to inform the Chairman about their trading of the Company's securities at least one (1) day before the trading date.
